

This topographic map shows the Grandglise area and its surroundings. A prominent red route with arrows indicates a path starting from the top left, passing through Grandglise, and ending near the bottom right. The map includes several water features: the 'Rau de la Fontaine Bouillante' (a stream), the 'CANAL ATH-BLATON' (a canal), and 'Épur' (a pond). Infrastructure includes the 'R. de la Station' (road), 'R. de Grandglise', 'R. de Tournai', 'R. du Banc de Sable', 'R. du Grippets', 'R. du Col', 'R. du Calvaire', 'R. de la Délivrance', 'R. du Nouveau Rond', and 'R. du Grippets'. The map also shows the 'A16 E42' highway, the '150kV' power line, and the 'N50' and 'N505' roads. The area is characterized by green fields, some buildings, and a small cluster of trees labeled 'le Marais'. The map is oriented with North at the top.